FAMILY-OWNED BUSINESS AWARD

Orange County, CA (June x, 2019) – Pacifica Hotels, the largest owner and operator of boutique hotels on the Pacific Coast, was honored Tuesday with the Orange County Business Journal's 2019 Family-Owned Business Award, Large Business Category. The awards were presented at a 2019 Family-Owned Business Luncheon & Program at the Hotel Irvine.

The 2019 Family-Owned Business Awards program recognizes five exceptional Orange County Businesses. This marks the 20th annual Family-Owned Business Awards for the Orange County Business Journal.

“In the strong and ever-growing Orange County business community, we are especially honored to be recognized for our contributions as both a company and a family,” said CEO Matt Marquis. “My father, Dale Marquis, started this business in 1970 with the formation of Invest West Financial Corporation, then in 1993, after over 20 years of continued success and growth in the hospitality arena, launched Pacifica Hotels to consolidate and evolve the hotel portfolio development and operations. Along with my brothers, Adam and Chris, we have strived to build Pacifica Hotels into a California hospitality institution with a solid family foundation achieving nearly 50 years in the industry. Moving our headquarters to Aliso Viejo in 2017 was one of the best decisions we’ve made to date for our team and our families.”

Pacifica Hotels continues to acquire, develop, and manage distinctive properties with pride. Headquartered in Aliso Viejo, CA, Pacifica Hotels currently operates 40 limited and full-service hotels, 7 full-service restaurants & bars, 6 fast casual restaurants, and manages over 1,700 employees.
